Basic rules about intersecting lines and angles. If two lines intersect, then opposite angles are equal.

If two parallel lines are intersected by another line (a transversal) then "corresponding" angles are equal.

\[ l_1 \parallel l_2 \]

parallel